Your answers should be ½ page maximum in length (placed in the spaces below), 12 pt Times New Roman font, single-spaced, and margins should not be smaller than ¾ inches. Also, remember that typos, grammatical mistakes, and other errors may prevent you from being selected:
- A. Leadership is one of the characteristics of NHS members. Why do you feel that your Leadership is fitting of National Honor Society? Give at least three examples of how you demonstrate this quality making sure to remember that being a good student (turning in assignments on time, being respectful, etc...) is an expectation of all students. How do you go above and beyond just being a good student?
- B. Exhibiting good character even when no one is watching is a requirement of all National Honor Society members. Explain one incident in your high school career that your character or someone you knew had their character tested and the right choice was not made. How did you or your friend handle it? What would you do differently if the situation arose again to exhibit good character? How could you become a better influence and make an impact on others? Be specific.

- C. National Honor Society members are expected to participate in a large number of activities and community service projects. How you would handle your NHS responsibilities and your other commitments? Share with the selection committee the specific demands that you have on your time and how you can meet the additional demands expected of a National Honor Society member.
